Dear Miss Holding:-

Referring to our conversation this morning, you may consider yourself engaged, and I would be glad if you could come down here and start in this afternoon.

Very truly yours,

Director.

Dear Mr. Belden:-

This is a fine place for bathing but haven't had enough sun to even start a coat of tan.

Sincerely yours W. 156th St. & Broadway.

SURF BATHING.      OCEAN CITY, N. J.

August 1st, 1914.

Dear Miss Holding:-

I enclose your check as promised.

I am much obliged for the card which has just been received. Though you have not had much sun, I presume you have the satisfaction of finding that the water is still wet.

Trusting that you will have a pleasant time, I am,

Very truly, yours,

Appointments First-class

F. W. Michener, Owner and Proprietor

Ocean City, N. J. Aug. 3 1914.

Dear Mr. Belden:-

I have just received my check, and I want to thank you ever so much for the same.

The weather down here has changed for the better, and the sun needn't shine any more for I have got more of a tanning than I care for. As for the water, I assure you, it certainly is wet.

Thanking you again for the check, I am,

Very Respectfully
(Miss) Mildred G. Holding.

August 29th, 1914.

Dear Miss Holding:-

I enclose herewith check for your salary to date.

I trust that you are on the mend, and that we will see you back before very long.

With kind regards, believe me,

Very truly yours,

Aug 29, 1914.

My dear Mr. Belden:-

I am writing you a few lines to let you know just how my sister, Miss Holding, is getting along.

although she feels much better to-day than she has felt thus far, she still has to lay flat on her back and the Dr. thinks she will not be able to sit up for another week. She certainly is very ill and at first we were very much alarmed but the Dr. gave us very encouraging news to-day.

In addition to ulcers of the stomach she has yellow jaundice quite badly and that of course is a drawback.

When she received your letter yesterday she just felt all broken up and did so wish that she could be down at her work again but she will be back just as soon as she possibly can.

Miss Holding wishes me to thank you very much for the beautiful letter.

Hoping that you are enjoying the best of health Yours

Sincerely yours

Edna H. Holding

New York.

Dear Miss Holding:-

I enclose herewith your check for this week.
Miss Reilly informs me that you are improving, and I trust that you will be feeling yourself again before very long.

With kind regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

Sept 8, 1911.

My dear Mr. Kellum:

On Friday last

I received the check which you so kindly sent, but could not find the receipt which usually accompanies the same enclosed. Therefore I am unable to return such. I believe this was just an oversight or for some reason or another you did not intend that it should be.
But I did not know, and therefore it had to write anyway.

You may remember to write now although it is quite a long back, which is a sign of improvement, and the Rev.

said to-day that I may sit up for ten minutes on Friday & every day after, increasing the length of time each day. This gives me quite a good deal of encouragement, and I hope to be long to be back at my post again.

Thanking you for your great kindness, and with kind regards to you and all I am Respectfully Yours

Dear Miss Holding:-

I have your letter of September 8th. The answer of the relative is on its way kindly. I am sending you with this which please sign and let me have.

I am very glad to hear of your improvement, and trust that we will see you here before very long.

With kind regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

September 12th, 1914.

Dear Miss Holding:-

I enclose herewith your check for this week's salary. Miss Reilly will not forget the receipt this time.

Trusting that you still continue to improve, and hoping to see you before long, I am,

Very truly yours,

September 19th, 1914.

Dear Miss Holding:-

I enclose herewith your check for this week.

Trusting that you are on the road to recovery, and that we will see you before long, I am,

Very truly yours,

September 26th, 1914.

Dear Miss Holding:-

I enclose herewith your check for this week's salary.

Trusting that you will soon be all right again, I am,

Very truly yours,

241 E. 200 St. N.Y.

Mr. B. Belden,
Dear Sir,

Miss Holding asked me to write you for her.

I am improving slowly and getting well.

a little each day, we expect she will be able to be taken around to our new home 2773
E. 10th St.

If she keeps on improving she will try to be to business next Monday, but of course that depends upon what the Dr. says, she has not asked her when she can return to business as yet, but I can assure you she is very anxious to return and is afraid to ask when it will be.

The Dr. tells me now how ill is was, and we are very fortunate to have her recovering so quickly in the end.

Miss Holding has received her ducks
each week and wants me to thank you for sending them.

August 21st, 1913.

Dear Miss Walling:-

I enclose your cheque for this week as promised.

Trusting that you are well, and having a good time,

I am,

Very truly yours,

My dear Mr. Belden:-

I am returning herewith the receipt for the check you kindly sent me, and for which I thank you.

The weather has been ideal and I am having a great time. Put my hands in the water and found that it was quite wet.

With kindest regards
I am,

July 5th, 1917.

Miss Mildred G. Holding,
2973 Bainbridge Avenue,
New York.

Dear Miss Holding:-

I had a telephone call this morning from a gentleman connected with the Westchester Historical Research Commission asking about you. He seemed very much pleased with what I was able to tell him, and I should judge you were in a line for some position there for which you must have applied. It seems to me this ought to be a very good opening, and if you do receive the engagement there,

Miss Mabel Cratty General Secretary

American Numismatic Society, Broadway & 156th Street,
New York City,

Gentlemen;

We have just engaged Miss Mildred
New York City, for work in one of our departments.
Holding informs us that she was employed by for four and one half years, as stenographer librarian. Did you find her a dependable worker?

Your letter will be treated confidential.

Yours

New York City.

Dear Madam:-

Miss Mildred G. Holding was in our employ for several years a few years ago. We found her very lady like, courteous and industrious. Her work as a stenographer proved very satisfactory, and we were especially impressed with her willingness.

I remain,

Yours very truly,
